ARTICLE IV – Government

Section 9. Historian

The Historian shall be the custodian of all photographs, documents, and other memorabilia of the NCIAAI. The Historian shall be responsible for maintaining all such items in a central repository, so that the history of the NCIAAI can be preserved and memorialized. The outgoing Historian shall deliver the collection of documents, and other memorabilia to the incoming Historian. Documents may be scanned and stored, but the original documents shall be preserved for posterity. The Historian will be appointed annually by the Board of Directors and will not have voting privileges unless they are an officer or member of the Board of Directors under another title.
